

A Legacy of Stewardship

At the end of the day, Alabama farmers—like their fathers before them—are truly the Keepers of the Land. Perhaps that's because they know, better than most, that Alabama isn't just a place to live—it's a place that gives life. The land, water and air are as much the tools of their trade as a tractor and plow.

And thanks to their stewardship, those resources will be around for Alabamians to enjoy for generations to come.
